COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY JAN. 31, 1912.

NUMBER 13

A QUIET WEDDING.

Dr. R. Y. Hindman, a Prominent Physician, of this Place, and Miss Laura Herriford Married.

CEREMONY AT BRIDE'S COUNTRY HOME.

A very quiet wedding occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. George Herriford, last Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Laura Herriford was united in marriage to Dr. R. Y. Hindman, a well-known and popular physician, of this place. The ceremony was beautifully pronounced by Rev. J. W. Weldon, pastor of the Columbia Methodist Church. Only close relatives and one or two intimate friends were present. Immediately after the rites were solemnized the couple left, driving to the residence of the groom's father, Gov. J. R. Hindman, this city, where they will permanently reside, and where they were given a cordial greeting.

The groom is a gentleman of sterling character, a physician of prominence, possessing a stern, though pleasing disposition, popular with his brother members of the profession, and at times jovial and the life of his associates. No better young man ever grew up in Columbia, nor one who merited more friends.

The bride was born and reared at Burkesville, Cumberland county, removing with her parents to this place eight or ten years ago. She is a young woman of attractive personality, possessing all the characteristics that go to make up a lovable character, a devoted, amiable companion.

That they may live long, missing the hard knocks that often come to the human family, is the wish of The Adair County News, and also their numerous friends.

The February Woman's Home Companion.

The February Woman's Home Companion contains a remarkable short story entitled "The Way," by Juliet Wilbur Tompkins. It is a story that has aroused a tremendous discussion over the question as to how much of a sacrifice one woman could or would have the right to make for her friend who is in trouble.

In the same number there are several articles worthy of special comment. One, entitled "The Open Market in Des Moines," is a report of a movement in Iowa which has already reduced the cost of living in several cities and towns of that state and seems to offer a suggestion to many other communities. It is an article of universal interest and importance. Another valuable article in the February Companion is one entitled "The Girl With a Voice," in which a professional opera singer gives a graphic account of the long road that young women must travel who seek a musical career. It is an article filled with facts about actual cases. Other interesting articles in the number are "The Little Princess," a character sketch of the only daughter of the Emperor of Germany; "The Lost Aphrodite of Knidos"; "Sweethearts and Wives"; "The Healthy Baby"; and a sermon by Charles E. Jefferson, pastor of the Broadway Tabernacle in New York City.

The dressmaking and housekeeping departments are, as usual, filled with interesting facts and practical suggestions. Grace M. Gould, who conducts the fashion department, contributes an article this month entitled "What Men Are Wearing."

Miss Ruth C. Sherrill, who was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Sherrill, both deceased, and who in their life time lived in Adair county, near Milltown, was married to Mr. James M. Cloyd, a prosperous young farmer, who lives near Hatcher, Taylor county, last week. The bride's mother, before her marriage, was Miss Susie Turk, of this place, a sister of Mrs. Mary T. Harvey.

Allen Walker sold, last Friday, the residence on the cross street, leading from Greensburg street and occupied by Mr. Junius Pickett and family, to Mrs. Richardson, mother of Hugh Richardson, consideration, $1,250. Possession will be given at once. Mr. Pickett will remove to the Johnson property, near the Fair Grounds.

Rev. J. R. Crawford continuing his "Talks on Genesis" will preach at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday evening. The sermon will be illustrated by a number of Dore's famous Bible pictures. At the morning hour Mr. Crawford will preach at the Union Presbyterian Church.

An Oversight.

In newspaper work the editor occasionally overlooks a timely and merited mention. In an article of last week, speaking of the closing of the meeting at the Presbyterian church, we failed to mention the delightful music, the singing conducted by Miss Elizabeth Holladay and the playing by Miss Alice Walker, both of whom are very talented young ladies. Miss Holladay has a trained voice and as a leader and time-keeper she ranks with the best of singers, and her help during the services was highly appreciated, not only by the members of the Presbyterian Church and its pastor, but by all who attended. Miss Holladay was assisted by a choir of fine voices, and to them thanks are also due. As an organist, Miss Walker is not a tyro. She is skilled, sending out the notes in a most enchanting manner, and the beauty of her music is her cheerfulness in rendering it.

CROSSED THE DIVIDE.

Mr. John T. Carson, a Former Citizen Dies in Duke, Oklahoma.

THE END CAME LAST THURSDAY NIGHT.

A postal card received Sunday morning notified Mrs. Margaret Tucker and Mrs. Kinnie Murrell that their brother-in-law, Mr. J. T. Carson, had died in Duke, Oklahoma, Thursday evening. Particulars were not given, but it was known that he had been in declining health for sometime.

The deceased was about sixty-six years old and was born and reared in Campbellsville. When about twenty-seven years old he was married in this place to Miss Mollie Atkins, who preceded him to the grave less than two years ago. A few years after this union the deceased became a citizen of Columbia, residing here a number of years, carrying on an Undertaker's shop, and during his citizenship he officiated at many funerals.

When about thirty-five years old he professed his faith in Christ, uniting with the Presbyterian Church, Columbia. Afterward he joined the Methodist church in Alexandria, Ind.

The deceased is survived by two children, Mr. Melvin Carson, who is connected with the "Big Four" office Louisville, and Mrs. J. F. Baugh, at whose home the deceased died. He also leaves one brother, Mr. Andrew Carson, who lives in Campbellsville.

The remains were brought to Louisville and will be interred in Cave Hill to day, by the side of his companion. The son, daughter, brother and other relatives have the sympathy of this town.

Birthday Dinner.

Miss Mary L. Bennet entertained some of her friends at dinner, last Wednesday, in honor of her twenty first birthday. Those present were: Misses Virgie Conover, Mary E. Willis, Nonie Conover, Mesdames Tennie Dohoney and Rose Price and Mr. Wyatt Conover. An excellent dinner was served, delightful music rendered and the day enjoyably spent.

Russell & Co.

The January pay for the school teachers is now in the hand of the Superintendent. Miss Hindman will be absent from her office, attending a convocation of the State Superintendents at Bowling Green, from February 3rd to the 12th.

Mr. Bob Reynolds, met with a very painful accident last Monday afternoon. He was assisting Mr. C. C. Hindman in getting out staves. Placing a wedge in a piece of timber, he struck it a hard blow and it flew up, striking him on the upper lip, cutting a severe gash. He came to town and Dr. C. M. Russell dressed the wound.

M. C. Winfrey and O. P. Willis, deputy sheriffs, arrested Leonard Wooten in the Sparksville country, last Wednesday night, charged with breaking into the house of Dallas Firquin. He was locked up.

SUIT COMPROMISED.

Before Testimony Closed the Case of Murray Bros. vs. L. C. Winfrey, Adm. of Henry Todd's Estate Settled.

BEST FOR ALL PARTIES CONCERNED.

The suit of the Murray Brothers against the administrator, L. C. Winfrey, of the estate of the late Henry Todd, took rather an unusual turn last week. The trial was in progress, the witnesses on both sides examined, except three for the defense, when a compromise was perfected, the administrator paying the plaintiffs three hundred and fifty dollars and the cost of the suit.

The Murray brothers sued for twelve hundred dollars, alleging that said sum was due them for boarding and caring for said Henry Todd and his horse for eight or ten years before his death.

This was an unfortunate suit and should not have gone to court, as all the parties are closely related—and money would have been saved if the compromise had been brought about sooner.

If there has been any bitter feelings on account of the action, we hope they have been dismissed, and that the close friendship that existed between all the parties will continue as it did before the suit was brought.

OUTLOOK FOR FARMERS.

Many Have Commenced Turning Corn Ground, Others Making Preparations for Tobacco.

YEOMANRY BUSY FOR NEXT THREE MONTHS.

From information gathered from farmers from all parts of Adair county unusually large corn and tobacco crops will be put out the coming season. Quite a number of farmers who have not been growing tobacco will plant extensively this year. Many of them will set from ten to fifteen acres, and if the season is favorable an unusually large crop will be grown in Adair county. A large majority of the crops will be Burley.

There will be more ground than usual planted in corn.

The snows were of great benefit to the growing wheat crops, and it is looking fine. At this time it looks like the farming class have bright prospects in view. We like to see the farmer prosper, as all other business depends upon his success.

During the months of January and February we will send the Adair County News and the Daily Courier-Journal, one year each for $1.00. The Daily Courier-Journal six months and the Adair County News one year for $2.75. The Daily Courier-Journal, three months and the Adair County News one year for $2.00. Remember that this unprecedented offer is good only in the months of January and February. Now is the time to subscribe. This is Presidential year and every body should keep posted.

Notice.

To the tax payers of Adair County who own, or have listed in their name real estate on which taxes for the year 1911 have not been paid, may expect to see same advertised to sell at the court house door in Columbia, Ky., on (Monday) March 4th 1912, at 1 o'clock p. m. unless settled in a satisfactory way on or before said date.

If you have not settled this means "you," as I am, compelled to close up all outstanding taxes at once.

A. D. Patterson S. A. C.

A Hero In A Lighthouse.

For years J. S. Donahue, So. Haven, Mich., a civil war captain, as a lighthouse keeper, averted awful wrecks; but a queer fact is, he might have been a wreck, himself, if Electric Bitters had not prevented. "They cured me of kidney trouble and chills," he writes, "after I had taken other so called cures for years, without benefit and they also improved my sight. Now at seventy, I am feeling fine." For dyspepsia, indigestion, all stomach, liver and kidney troubles, they're without equal. Try them. Only 50cts. at Paul Drug Co.

GONE TO HER REWARD.

Miss Annie D. Johnston Passes Over the River of Death at Her Late Home.

THE FUNERAL LARGELY ATTENDED.

Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the subject of this writing succumbed to the inevitable and peacefully met her God.

The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johnston, who live in the Milltown country, where the departed was born and reared. Her life and character was that of a most excellent young woman, and her death brought sorrow to many homes. She was thirty-nine years old, a victim of consumption.

The funeral services were held at Milltown Wednesday afternoon and the interment was in the Tutt grave yard. The deceased had been a member of the Christain Church since early girlhood and her religious life was manifested in her daily walk. The funeral services were conducted, in the presence of many relatives and friends, by Eld. Z. T. Williams.

Besides her parents, she leaves five brothers, one sister and two uncles, Messrs. J. R. and N. M. Tutt.

Will Open Soon.

Mr. Ray Conover, who is one of the proprietors of the coming Parlor Circle show, returned from Cincinnati Friday morning whither he had gone in the interest of the show. He purchased a Standard machine, the best that is made, the necessary number of chairs, piano, etc. In ten or fifteen days the outfit will arrive and a first-class picture show will start. In last week's paper we stated that the hall of entertainment would be in the new Sinclair building over W. H. Wilson's store.

Notice.

I will offer for sale at my residence near Columbia, Ky., on Feb. 20th, 1912, the following to the highest and best bidder.

Four head of horses, two fine jacks, one mule, cattle and hogs. One piano and other property too tedious to mention. Sale begin at 10 a. m. Terms made known on day of sale.

12-2t S. H. Mitchell.

Two foreigners claiming to be from Jerusalem, were here last week soliciting money for an orphanage in their country. One of them, Nicholas Jonathan, claimed to be a minister. They took in the town and quite a number of our citizens contributed. They could scarcely make their wants known. About all they could tell was they wanted money.

John Robert Smith, of color, given a penitentiary sentence from one to five years, was conveyed to Frankfort Monday by Sheriff A. D. Patterson.

For Sale Or Rent.

Will sell or rent my farm of 10 acres, located 1/2 miles north of Montpelier Ky. Write or call on me.

M. H. Murrah, Montpelier, Ky.

Mrs. Chuff Sharp, who lived near Camp Knox, Green county, died Monday night of last week. She was about sixty years old.

John Robert Williams, of color, was arrested last Wednesday night, charged with using brass knucks. He bonded.

How Did He Do It.

Mr. S. H. Mitchell, who lives in the suburbs of Columbia, one of the best known men in Adair county, is somewhat of a prestigator. A few days ago he was in his wood-house chopping stove wood with an ordinary chopping ax, and he accidentally struck the blade of the ax in the top of his head, cutting a severe gash which was closed by Dr. R. Y. Hindman. A News man asked Mr. Mitchell how it occurred, and he said it was a little piece of legerdemain that he did not give out every day.

NO ELECTION.

So Judge Carter Decides in the Breeding School Election Contest.

A GREAT DEAL OF INTEREST WAS MANIFESTED.

Last year at the general school election for trustees, A. K. Rupe and J. W. Simpson were opposing candidates in the Breeding precinct, No. 24. On the face of the returns Simpson was elected; but Rupe claimed that he (Simpson) received a number of illegal votes, and upon a fair count he (Rupe) should have been given the certificate.

The case went before the County School Superintendent, Miss Pearl Hindman, and from her it went to the circuit court, a great many depositions having been taken on both sides. The case came on for trial before Judge Carter last Thursday forenoon, and late Thursday night the depositions had all been read. Friday morning the lawyers argued the points, and just before noon the Judge decided that there was no election.

This was a case where everything went out and nothing came in.

We take it that another election will now be called, and more than likely Messrs. Rupe and Simpson will again be candidates.

New Blacksmith Shop.

Mr. D. J. Comer, has opened a blacksmith shop back of the wholesale house and solicits work. He has 32 years experience and is a finished workman. He does shoeing and repairs buggies and wagons. All work guaranteed to give satisfaction.

The Gozder Printing Company, publishers of The News Journal, Campbellsville, complimented us with a very handsome calendar, the printing being the work of the job man in said office. It is artistic, showing at a glance that the printer knew his business when he marked off his design. It does credit to The News-Journal's job department, and with thanks we place it in our calendar gallery.

William Scott, who stands indicted in the Adair Circuit Court, for whom the Sheriff had a bench warrant, issued two years ago, walked into the coils last Friday week. He came to town about 3 o'clock in the morning to secure his marriage license. M. C. Winfrey, deputy sheriff, went to the wedding and arrested him. He bonded for his appearance at next term of court.

SALT FOR SALE.

I have an honest 7 bushel barrel salt, which cost only 15 cents more than the 5 1/2 bushel barrel which you buy elsewhere. 33-3t Sam Lewis.

There is nothing more disreputable than to take a paper three or four years without paying, then have the postmaster to notify the publisher that his paper is refused. If you are looking for justice in the other world, pay the printer.

For Sale.

A complete saw mill outfit, either size 35 boiler 25 engine, Giser or 25 boiler, 20 engine—Case, with night saw rig. Reasonable price, cash or trade. This machinery is new and as good as made. Write, wire or call on us.

Wolford Bros. Casey Creek, Ky.

The members of the last grand jury are to be commended for their work. They were diligent from start to finish, returning eighty indictments. The bulk of them were for breach of the peace and selling liquor and other intoxicants, but several are for grave offenses.

RUSSELL AND ADAIR.

Mr. Geo. A. Smith, Jr., and Miss Lutie Barger, Married at the Bride's Home.

WILL RESIDE AT LULA KENTUCKY.

Last Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Mr. Geo. A. Smith, Jr., son of Mr. G. A. Smith, this place, and Miss Lutie Barger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Barger, were married at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. D. H. Howerton, pastor of the Baptist church, this city. Attendants, Mr. G. W. Turner and Miss Helen Upton, Mr. Elmo Wilkerson and Miss May Upton.

The couple left immediately for Russell Springs where they were entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. J. W. Kimble, sister of the groom.

Mr. Smith is a fine citizen, a thrifty farmer and trader, and he and his bride will reside on a farm at Lula, Russell County.

The bride is one of Adair county's best young women and she has a host of friends.

The News extends its best wishes.

Russell County Loses an Aged Citizens.

Mr. J. E. Foley, who was 78 years, 10 months and 13 days old, died in Russell county on the 23rd inst. He was a very kind old gentleman and his death brought sorrow to many homes, as he was a friend to more than his own. He leaves a number of children, grandchildren and great grandchildren and he was a father to them all. The funeral services were largely attended.

A Girl's Wild Midnight Ride.

To warn people of a fearful forest fire in the Catskills a young girl rode horse back at midnight and saved many lives. Her deed was glorious but lives are often saved by Dr. King's New Discovery in curing lung trouble, coughs and colds, which might have ended in consumption or pneumonia. "It cured me of a dreadful cough and lung disease," writes W. R. Patterson, Wellington Tex., "after four in our family had died with consumption, and I gained 87 pound." Nothing so sure and safe for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Paul Drug Co.

Lige Burton sold his house and lot at Purdy to his brother, J. B. Burton, and bought of Walker Bryant a half interest in the R. A. Hutchison farm, lying near Cane Valley. He will remove to the latter place early in February.

If you want to keep posted during the year 1912, subscribe for the Daily Courier-Journal. The price of the C.J. is $6.00 a year, but if you will send your subscription to The News office, we will furnish the Daily Courier-Journal and our paper one year each for $4.00. This offer is good during January and February.

For Sale.

I have 40 acres of land for sale. Located 2 1/2 miles East of Columbia, Ky. Address: F. C. Brase, R. F. D. 1, Cairo, Ill.

11-1t

Mr. J. F. Triplett, has removed his undertaker's business from the room over Geo. E. Wilson's store to upstairs apartments in the new Paul Drug Co.'s building.

After being in session twelve days circuit court closed last Saturday. It was the busiest term here since Judge Carter has been on the bench.

Dr. E. I. Alper is kept busy fitting glasses and we think the people of this community will do well to call on him while he is here.

Elrod & Co., have moved their place of business. They are now across the creek on Mr. J. T. Page's property.

Misses Virginia Smith, Nellie Huffaker and Kate Cooper took the common school diploma examination last week.

Mrs. Duff Thompson, died near Miami, on the 22nd of January. Obituary will appear next week.

Circuit Court closed last Saturday. The Judge was kept busy during the entire term.

Born to the wife of Dudley McFarland, Rowena, on the 12th, a son.
